Freight Circular.

Messrs Lamke and Rogge, in their weekly Freight Circular dated Oct. 12 state:—

Since the issue of our last Circular under date of the 26th ultimo the freight market has continued very firm in every direction and the difficulties of obtaining tonnage are as great as ever. Regular lines having their hands full to supply tonnage for offerings on the berth, and other owners holding their tonnage for prompt and forward delivery firmly, the market is in a stronger position than it has been for years.

With every indication of rates further advancing, and it looks as if the boom—if nothing is unforeseen up North happens—is going to continue right throughout next year. The rates owners asking has no doubt caused some consternation amongst charterers, and they, realizing that stiff rates are going to be secured by owners at year, have taken up boats on time-charter for a long term for prompt and forward delivery. As will be seen from the fixture list, quite a good business has been done in time chartering down South, and we hear that also up North some fixtures have taken place with substantial advances in rates, in one instance a boat even having been taken up for a term of 3 years—which tends to strengthen rates in all trades.

Saigon/Hongkong:—Regular boats are now accepting small lots of paddy at 7 cents per picul. There is no demand for Saigon rice here, and some of the boats have abandoned their run for the present, as they can easily find very profitable employment in other directions. Rice exports during this season amount to total 490,239 tons compared with 508,675 tons same period last year. Quotation stands for October shipment $8.55, per picul f.o.b. against $8.50, same time last year.

Saigon Philippines:—From enquiries put on our market a couple of fixtures only have resulted and in consequence of the light offering of tonnage owners have been able to push this rate up to 34 cents for 34,000 piculs as compared with 31 cents for 30,000 piculs as paid only a fortnight ago. It is reported that the Philippine crops in most sections are flourishing, and it is believed that this will be a banner year if conditions continue favourable until the first week in November.

Saigon/Java:—Nothing doing. Letter advice from Rangoon state that about 15,000 tons were sold to Java early last month.

Newchwang/Canton:—Only one fixture was done during the fortnight on lumpsum basis, the rate working out at 27 cents per picul. Charterers having booked sufficient tonnage for their requirements, prefer to wait the arrival of the first new beans before going in for fresh chartering.

Timechartering:—There was a good demand for prompt, and also forward delivery and fixtures have taken place at good paying rates, details of which will be found in the fixture list.

Coal Freight:—Tonnage was in good demand this fortnight, but some Japanese boats offering in the market, the rate from Japan to Hongkong has slightly declined.

Fixtures Reported:—Moji/Hongkong

$2.20/$2.5 Yen 2.10, Wakamatsu/Swato

$1.30/$1.25, Wakamatsu/Amoy Yen 3.30.

Hongkong/Hongkong $2.50, and Hongkong/

Swato $2.50 per ton.

Homeward:—The well known coaster

Norw. a.s. "Solstad" has been withdrawn from the coast, having been fixed for trade between France and Eastern ports for a period of 12 months.

RHEUMATIC WEATHER.

DON'T be surprised if you have an attack of rheumatism this spring. Just eat the infected, ripe, freely 4 lb. Chan-

-deling's Pils Beer, and it will soon dis-appear. Sold by all Chemists and Store-

-keepers.

REVIEWS.

Messrs Hodder and Stoughton, Publishers, London.

"A CHANGE OF AIR."

In their Sevenpenny Series, this well-known firm have recently added Anthony Hop's "A Change of Air." It is a delightful story, told with the author's characteristic brilliancy. The volume forms an important addition to this well-bound, clearly printed and altogether excellent series.

"OUT OF THE NIGHT."

To this series also, Mrs Ballie Reynolds's fascinating story "Out of the Night" has also been added. As lovers of good fiction know, Mrs Reynolds tells a story acquisitely, and to those who have not read "Out of the Night" a great pleasure is in store.

"WIRELESS TELEGRAPHY."

The same firm have also issued, as the latest volume of their "Useful Knowledge Series" a truly admirable, compact and most instructive volume on "Wireless Telegraphy" by Alfred T. Story. In these days when one reads so much of the growing utility of wireless telegraphy, it is absolutely necessary that more than a superficial knowledge of this remarkable invention should be known, and in this little book volume Mr Story tells in a most interesting manner and with a few technicalities as possible, all that there is to be known of the wonders of "wireless." This little book will probably prove to be one of the most popular of this instructive series.

A NEW BOOK BY OPPENHEIM.

To those who wish to keep themselves up-to-date in good fiction, the announcement of a new work by E. Phillips Oppenheim is important. The volume in question is entitled "The Lighted Way," and is a remarkably vivid narrative of how a London clerk becomes involved in plots and counter-plots of adventurers who move in high society. The under-current of the story is told in the author's characteristic manner and makes the work one of his most attractive. It also published by Messrs Hodder and Stoughton.

Messrs Williams and Norgate, Publishers, London.

MISCELLANEOUS:—THEIR RISE AND DEVELOPMENT.

This is the title of the latest addition to the "Home University Library" of Messrs

Williams and Norgate. It is specially written by Mrs Creighton, a lady well-qualified to write on this important subject. In this compact volume of some 250 pages, the rise and development of all sorts of missionary activity is told ably, succinctly and pleasing

SCOTTISH LETTER.

EDINBURGH, Sept. 17.
MID-LOTHIAN.

Major J. A. Hope, the new member for Mid-Lothian, was born in 1869, served in the King's Royal Rifles, and is now attached to the Reserve of Officers. He is married to the Hon. Mary Bruce, eldest daughter of Lord Balfour of Burleigh, and is the nephew and heir of Sir Alexander Hope, Bart. of Pinkie, Musselburgh. The grandfather of Major Hope represented Mid-Lothian in Parliament from 1845 to 1853.

Mid-Lothian now finds itself represented by a Unionist for the first time since the Gladstonian campaign of 1880, when the Earl of Dalkeith, the Conservative member, was defeated. Mr. Gladstone continued member for Mid-Lothian until 1905, when he was succeeded by the present Lord Carmichael. In addition to the late member, Lord Murray (the Master of Elibank), Lord Dalrymple (son of Lord Rosburgh) also represented the Metropolitan County.

THE RETURN OF THE LEWIS FISHERMEN.

The ten fishermen of Port of Ness, Lewis, of whose adventure I wrote last week, have returned to their homes, much astonished to hear of the anxiety which their absence occasioned. It will be remembered that they sailed for the island of Sullister on August 10, and as there had been a great storm, and no news received, they were given up for lost. A public subscription was actually started for the relief of the 10 "widows" and 22 "orphans." The fishermen say that they neither saw nor heard the gunboat Phoenix which had been sent to their assistance. The story of the gunboat, they say, may have been sounded, but as the rock of Sullister is tunneled through in several places (one fisherman said the islet is set upon five pillars like a table the top of the sea in the tunnels is sometimes defining. The fisherman have not a little of the fatalist in their character. One of them was asked "And will you go to Sullister next year, Murdo?" "Who knows?" he replied; "I don't know whether I'll be alive or not next year. I ran many a bigger risk than this before, and how do I know what end is appointed for me?" Possibly they would all answer after the same fashion. The important thing meantime is that death was not "appointed" for them this time and that their presence in Ness today has made many homes happy once more.

SCOTLAND AND DENMARK.

The Anglo-Scandinavian Society have just spent a holiday and they report that they were received with a hospitality which was impressive and at times overwhelming. The visitors disappointed the Danes, however, because they did not come with Scots kilts and skirts and naked legs, with plaids of different colours, and with the goshawk bays. But at an evening reception one of the party had the courage to appear in full Highland costume, and this is how one of the newspapers, the "Politikon," described the scene: "A crowd of people followed, at more or less distance, the Scottish guests. But all their interest was concentrated in one of the society who actually wore a skirt! He is a slender, elegant young gentleman, and had his marmalade costume above the usual absolutely irreproachable evening dress—coat, waistcoat, and white tie. But below, a short skirt of dark green stained stuff, with naked knees and legs, short socks, and black patent shoes. To all this he wore a scarf and a big, long-haired bag. This combination is considered."

At the British Association, Dundee, Sir James Donaldson, Principal of St. Andrew's University, gave expression to some novel views on the subject of the spelling of English words. Everybody, he said, should be allowed to spell as he liked. He believed that if our spelling was phonetic we would get hold of the Chinese nation, they would all come to read English; but with the present mode of spelling there was no chance of foreign nations learning our language easily.

TOBACCO TREASURY SEARCH.
The Tobacco Treasury search has concluded for the present year, and upon a confident note, for a further lease of two years is arranged between the Duke of Argyll and Colonel Mackenzie Foss. On day this month witnessed a remarkable "bag"—280 articles, including cannon balls, bullets, pottery, and wine bottles. The main object of the salvage was the raising of the hull of the Florentia with a view to reconstruction, but the time available was too short, and the shareholders must be content with deferred dividends.

considered the very finest of gala dresses but not everybody may wear it. It is reserved for the real, genuine old Highland clan families to which the gentleman belongs. His profession now is a brewer!"

EVOLUTION OF TWEED CLOTH.

The manufacture of tweed cloth is a very important industry on the Scottish Border, the woolen fabric, of course, takes its name from the principal river of the district. Sir Walter Scott, is recorded one of the first patrons of the material; he wore a pair of trousers of the black and white 'cheek known as shepherds' tartan. Lord Brougham also wore breeches of the same pattern, as all students of the earlier volumes of Punch are aware. Last week Mr. Thomas Welsh, of Hawick, read an interesting account of the evolution of the tweed to the members of the Textile Institute Congress. He said that the subdued checks now worn were introduced by an accident. It happened that a manufacturer of sheepskins' plaid tartan made a number of pieces in which the white was so dirty looking that they could not be sold. Some one suggested that if the pieces were dyed brown the defect would be covered. The result was a check of black, green, and blue broken checks; these for colours were collected from granite, porphyry, and Jasper found in the river Garry and the Pass of Killcrankie. And then there came the heather mixtures, which were first asked for by some gentlemen of the rod and gun, who wanted colours which resembled the moorlands and river banks.

SHIPPING.

The twin-screw mail and passenger steamer Neutralla, was launched by Messrs. Barclay, Curle and Co., Whiteinch, for the B.L.S.N. Co. She is 8,500 tons gross, and is intended for service between London and the East.

The P. and O. Co. have ordered two steamers of the "N" class from Messrs. Caird and Co., Greenock. The vessels are to be 14,100 twin-screw steamers of nearly 9,000 tons gross. At the present time, there are about eight P. and O. ships building on the Clyde.

BURNS' HOWE IN DUNDEE.

A strenuous effort will be made to prevent the removal of the Globe Inn, Dumfries to the United States. Sir James Crichton-Browne says it would be a tragedy to permit the tavern to be removed to New York or Chicago and built up there as a variety show. And Provost Thomson proposes to raise a fund for the purchase of Burns' Howe, and states that he has already received many private promises of support.

PHONETIC SPELLING.

At the British Association, Dundee, Sir James Donaldson, Principal of St. Andrew's University, gave expression to some novel views on the subject of the spelling of English words. Everybody, he said, should be allowed to spell as he liked. He believed that if our spelling was phonetic we would get hold of the Chinese nation, they would all come to read English; but with the present mode of spelling there was no chance of foreign nations learning our language easily.

item of government that has commanded its assent and approval for centuries.It is mainly because Unionist opinion, in this matter, has never yet been crystallised into conviction that we hope to see it thoroughly threshed out. There is still a fair amount of spade work to be done. And it may well begin with an endeavour to sweep away all the mystification and misapprehension that surrounds the history of previous projects for bringing the House of Lords into closer accord with the more complex conditions of the day. The gradual acceptance of the principle of life peerages deserves careful study. The abandonment of an attitude of irreconcilable repugnance to the idea that, with the exception of Bishops and law lords, none but hereditary Peers could be competent to sit in an Upper Chamber is among the most noteworthy features of modern progress in the science of government.Our contemporary traces the origin and course of this and other departures from the rigid Conservatism of sixty or seventy years ago. They institute a sufficiently elaborate comparison of the measures of reform proposed by Lords Rosebery and Lansdowne and others who were ready to net on the theory that the House of Lords, even before the hands of Radical revolutionaries were laid on it, as not all that it might be or ought to be. Once it is agreed that hereditary privilege must be tempered by introducing the elective system, there are more ways than one of determining the just balance that should be aimed at.
The appointment of ex officio Peers of Parliament, the admission of representatives of British Dominions Overseas, the exclusion of noble lords whose claims on the ground of their descent are outweighed by disqualifications on which there is no occasion now to dilate; these and other still unsolved doubts must be answered before the Unionist plan of campaign, merely so far as the reforms of the House of Lords is concerned, can be promulgated with unanimity and an assured belief in its success.

HONGKONG, TUESDAY, OCTOBER 15, 1912.

THE UNIONIST PLAN OF CAMPAIGN.As it seems to be the case that the Unionist Party are now in the ascendant, it is especially interesting to know what is likely to be their plan of campaign. There may be, says the Standard in the course of a long article on the subject, some variety of opinion in regard to the comparative importance and the comparative intricacy of more than one of the subjects remaining to be dealt with when sufficient attention has been paid to that of a reform of the House of Lords. Some people might be disposed to think that a measure for the redistribution of seats in the House of Commons is even more urgently required than the amendment of the Insurance Act; and that consequently it would be better to have a clear understanding on the adjustment of representation before discussing the best means of undoing the mischief arising more or less directly out of a vicious system. To others, again, industrial problems may appear more urgent than that of national defence. But without suggesting that a survey of that situation will proceed strictly in accordance with the significance of each point to be investigated, we have little doubt that the propriety of starting with a comprehensive study of all that concerns the re-establishment of a Second Chamber will be generally recognised. It would be going too far to say that a reform of the House of Lords at the present moment is an absolute necessity—the one necessary thing on which Unionist thought and energy should be concentrated. On the other hand, it is an indispensable condition for progress and the recovery of lost ground in all other directions. So long as the Upper House remains in the position to which it has been reduced, the country is not under the

A THREATENED BOYCOTT.

Northern Merchants and the Hongkong and Shanghai Bank.In the last day or two a rumour has been circulated in the Colony to the effect that President Yuan Shih Kai has advised the wealthy commercial men of Hongkong to boycott the Hongkong and Shanghai Bank for reasons connected with the proposed Six Power loan. While this rumour has confirmation, there is some foundation for it, as inquiries made by a "China Mail" representative to-day proved.
The real facts of the matter seem to be that a group of Shanghai commercial men decided to transfer their dealings from the Hongkong and Shanghai Bank to the Chartered Bank, the reason for their decision being their belief that as the principal unit of the Six Power Loan group and the biggest banking concern in the Orient, the former bank had engineered the present high rate of exchange, to the detriment of the borrowers of the "opposition" ten million sterling loan, who have lost several per cent. on account of the depreciation of the gold currency. The Northern merchants resolved to endeavour to induce their brethren of the South to fall into line with them, and a meeting was arranged some few days ago with the object of selecting delegates of the boycotting group to visit the larger Chinese merchants of Hongkong and put before them their views.The attitude of the Chinese authorities towards the movement can be gauged from the fact that the Police Commissioner of Peking, upon learning the object of the projected meeting, prohibited it upon the ground that it was likely to injure foreign relations. Whether this set-back was sufficient to dissuade the dissatisfied merchants has not yet become apparent, but certain it is that as yet no overtures have been personally made to the Chinese commercial community of Hongkong.
Upon inquiry at the Hongkong and Shanghai Bank this afternoon our representative learned that the statement that President Yuan Shih Kai had instigated the boycott is given no credence at all.
As was pointed out, the business relationship existing between the bank and the Hongkong merchants are in many cases too closely interwoven to be severed at any rate at short notice.
Only rumours of the attempt to engineer a boycott have reached the official, and they have had no effect upon the Bank's Chinese business.
The Chinese community realise that there is greater security in European banks of established repute than in most of the native banks which are springing up, and for popularity and stability the Hongkong and Shanghai Bank is too well established and too widely recognised and appreciated to be likely to be affected by such a scheme as that of the Northern merchants.

EXTRAORDINARY GENERAL MEETING.

An extraordinary general meeting of the Hongkong, Canton and Macao Steamship Company Ltd., was held this morning at their offices, Hotel Mansions. The Hon.
C. H. Ross presided, and there were also present, Messrs G. Friedman, E. R.
Friedmann, F. A. Gomes, H. A. Siebs, F.
Lieb, F. H. Armstrong, G. Laurens, Messrs W. E. Clarke (secretary), and Messrs W. W. Looke, A. O. D. Gordin, E. Ornstein, T. F. Hoogh, shareholders.
The Chairman said: Gentlemen, this meeting is called to carry into effect the proposals of the Board as intimated to you at the half yearly meeting last August to have articles more in accordance with modern requirements. With that end in view the directors have caused a new set of articles to be prepared for adoption, if thought fit, at this meeting. These new articles provide for a yearly meeting instead of half yearly meetings, as suggested by a shareholder at the meeting in August, and for interim dividends. No instructions were given for any special alterations to be made save as regards yearly instead of half yearly meetings, and the new articles submitted to this meeting have been prepared in accordance with the forms now generally in use and have been considered and approved by your directors. If the resolution is passed it will be necessary to hold a formal meeting, due notice of which will be given. I now beg to propose that the regulations contained in the printed document submitted to the meeting, and for the purpose of identification submitted by the Chairman thereof, be and the same are hereby approved, and that such regulations be and they are hereby adopted as the Articles of the Company to the exclusion of and in substitution for all the existing articles thereof.
Mr. T. Hoogh seconded the resolution, which was carried unanimously.
The Chairman said that the resolution just approved would be submitted for confirmation as a special resolution to a second extraordinary meeting which would be subsequently convened. That was all the business of the meeting. He thanked those present for their attendance.

Interpretation of the Trust Deed.

COURT'S DECISION SOUGHT.

Sitting in Summary Jurisdiction this morning the Puisne Judge, Mr. Justice Gompertz, continued the hearing of an action brought by three trustees of the Zoroastrian Trust Fund who asked the Court to construe the "rules" governing the management and administration of the trust. The case commenced on Thursday last week and was adjourned, his Lordship reserving judgment upon three points raised by Mr. Jenkins, Counsell for the defendants, the principal one being that the points which his Lordship was asked to decide were of a purely domestic nature, and therefore the case ought not to have been brought before the Court at all.The plaintiffs were Marwanji Pallonji Talati, Dinshaw Karasjee Sethna, and Arloship Byramji Anand, and the defendants Hormasjee Kalkhastoor Esani.
Mr. C. G. Alabaster and Mr. Eldon Foster, instructed by Mr. H. W. Looker (of Messrs. Deacons, Looker and Deacons), appeared for the plaintiffs, and Mr. E. C.
Jenkins, instructed by Mr. G. K. Hall Barton, for the defendant.His Lordship, addressing Mr. Alabaster this morning, said he supposed the parties had not come to any friendly settlement.
Mr. Alabaster: No. We have not received any overtures from the other side.
His Lordship: And you have not made any, I suppose?
Mr. Alabaster: No my Lord.
His Lordship then read his decision upon the points raised by Mr. Jenkins, as follows: The first question I have to decide is whether the Court should decline jurisdiction. It was urged on the part of the defendant first of all that this is a domestic dispute, a mere private quarrel between the Trustees of the Zoroastrian community. It was further urged that these regulations, being of a local nature at a general meeting, the decision of the Court and question of construction can serve no useful purpose.
But I think that on the whole this is a matter which has come properly before the Court. Whatever personal jealousies or animosities may lie behind these proceedings, there is no doubt that very real divergences of opinion as to the meaning of the "rules" has arisen between the parties to this action. I think that the plaintiffs, in their capacity of trustees have a right to come to the Court to have these matters of construction finally decided. Nor do I think it sufficient to object that the members themselves can after these rules at any time. It was pointed out that it may be very difficult for one side or the other to muster the requisite three fourths majority. Possibly the majority of the members will acquiesce in the construction put by the Court.
In any case I think it would be inexpedient to rule that an instrument, the terms of which can under certain conditions be altered by the persons interested, is therefore ipso facto excluded from the provisions of Rule 64 (a). I think it is my duty to proceed with this summons as the parties are, most unfortunately, not able to agree to a friendly settlement.
Then there is the question whether the trustees should be represented. The learned Chief Justice has, I understand, already given a ruling on parts in Chambers that they need not be joined. No question of the regulation of the trust or of the administration of the Trust funds is involved. Neither the plaintiffs nor the defendants are applying to have the subscribers joined, and I see no reason why I should increase the costs by directing them to be made parties. Then there is the question whether the Attorney-General should be joined. But if this is a private Trust—and I am inclined to think that it is—it is rightly pointed out that the Attorney-General need not be made a party.The case then proceeded, Mr. Alabaster continuing his address in which he advanced the construction which the plaintiffs contended should be placed upon the rules.In the course of his address his Lordship intervened, with a question as to the amount of the funds which were in hand for the relief of necessitous Chinese, this being one of the objects of the Fund.
The secretary who was watching the case, said the money in hand for the relief of Chinese amounted to between $16,000 and $17,000.At the Magistrate's, this afternoon before Mr. Irving a Chinese was charged with stealing a neck chain from a young Chinese girl's neck at West Point. The complainant said she was walking along the street with her sister when the defendant came along from behind and snatched the chain and made off with it. He was afterwards brought back by three people. Prisoners who were detained by Mr. Lewis, of Messrs. Johnson, Stokes and Master, solicitors, was sentenced to six months' hard labour and four hours' stocks.The two-day interport trial match commenced on Saturday between teams cap-

Home Cricket and Football.

With the Champion County's heavy raining at the hands of the Rest of England at the Oval this week, says the London and Oxford Express of September 20th, first-class cricket ended for the season.
Yorkshire were defeated by 147 runs and 129 runs, having made only 78 at their second attempt. At the previous weekend the Australian and South Africancricketers brought their tour, to an end, the former being beaten by Mr. C. B. Fry's Eleven by eight wickets at Bray in Ireland, while the South Africans, rallying spontaneously in their second innings, defeated the Gentlemen of England at Hastings by six wickets. The cricket season has largely owing to the bad weather, been a very disappointing one, and though it has proved an interesting experiment the Triangular Test match scheme is not likely to be repeated for some years. Favorites of London football on Saturday were the defeat of Tottenham Hotspur at Blackburn by 6 goals to 1, and Woolwich Arsenal by Bolton Wanderers. Chelsea and Clapton Orient made amends by victories over Sheffield United by 4-2 and Burnley by 2-0 respectively.

THE COLONY'S HEALTH.

The health of the Colony has been remarkably good in the past few weeks. Plague has entirely disappeared, no case having been notified for some weeks. The only cases of communicable disease notified in the whole of the Colony in the week ending October 13 were one of diphtheria, and one of scarlet fever. The diphtheria patient a Portuguese, recovered, and the other, a Chinese, died.SOLDIER CHARGED BY COOLIE.

A Ricksha Boy.

A private in the K.O.Y.L.I. named Albert Johnson was charged at the Magistrate's with refusing to pay ricksha fare and also with assaulting and obstructing an Indian constable in the discharge of his duty last night.From the evidence it appeared that the soldier hired the ricksha from an hotel in the Central district. When at the Carlton hotel the defendant tendered a ten-cent piece to the coolie, and asked for five cents change. As the coolie had no change he went to get a five-cent piece from another coolie, and Johnson caught hold of him and pulled him out. The coolie lost the ten cents on the ground. Indian Constable 3232 deposed to witnessing the affair, and said he told the defendant that the coolie would return with the change. Defendant struck witness with his stick, and then the arrest took place. Defendant denied striking the constable.

AT THE MAGISTRACY.

At the Police Court to-day before Mr.
Melbourne, four men and a woman, including the quartermaster of the s.s. Hazel Dollar, were charged with stealing 16 bags of opium, value $700, from the Hazel Dollar, the property of the Robert Dollar Steamship Company. Five men were also charged with receiving the opium, knowing it to have been stolen.Mr. Rodrick McDonald, Chief Officer, appeared to prosecute, and Mr. Reader Harris, of Messrs Wilkinson and Grist, appeared to defend the first man charged with receiving the goods.Lance Sergeant Wills said that this was one of many cases of people going on board ships early in the morning and stealing opium. The cargo was removed, and the ships often went away without the officers being any the wiser. The opium in the present case was consigned from Manila to San Francisco,

NEW YORK POLICE
SCANDAL.

REMARKABLE DISCLOSURES.

(Reuter's Service to the China Mail.)

LONDON, Oct. 14.
Reuter's correspondent at New York telegraphs that the trial of Lieut. Becker of the New York police, on a charge of complicity in the murder of the gambler Rosenthal, Rose, Becker's alleged agent and graft collector, in giving evidence said that Becker insisted on having Rosenthal murdered. At his instruction Rose saw Zelig, who was then in prison, and arranged that some of his gang should do the job. Becker promising them immunity as far as the police were concerned, and threatening to arrest them on trumped-up charges if they refused. Rose described the arrangements and circumstances of the murder in great detail.

THE BALKANS' OUT-BREAK.

FIGHTING STILL PROCEEDING.

(Reuter's Service to the China Mail.)

LONDON, October 14.
Reuter's correspondent at Constantinople telegraphs that it is not believed that the replies of Turkey and the Confederacy to the Powers will affect the situation, and that the struggle will continue as regarded as inevitable.

SERVIA'S REPLY.

A telegram from Belgrade, says that the Servian Government's reply to the Austro-Russian Note was presented last night. The Government regrets its inability to comply with the desire of the Powers, as the Note does not contain a sufficient guarantee for the execution of the proposed reforms. A copy is appended of a Note handed to the Turkish Minister an hour earlier demanding reforms in Macedonia in the spirit of Article 23 of the Berlin Treaty, under the control of the Powers and the Balkan States, and as a pledge of assent Serbia asks for immediate demobilisation.

A telegram from Athens says the Greek Note to Turkey was handed to the Turkish Legation last night.

A Sofia telegram says Bulgaria's reply to the Powers was presented last night.

TURKEY'S REPLY.

The Daily Chronicle correspondent at Constantinople states that the Government's reply to the Powers has been drafted. It reiterates Turkey's readiness to apply reforms, but declines to give guarantees which are inconsistent with national dignity. It hints that it cannot pay attention to internal affairs while the sword is pointed at its throat. This is tantamount to a rejection of foreign interference.

MONTENEGRINS CHECKED.

The Montenegrins are encountering much resistance, and are losing heavily.

Their advance on the west side of Lake Scutari was checked, but fighting is still proceeding around Tuzi and Krania, and is visible from Scutari. The Montenegrins burned Krania, and several children perished in the flames.

HEAVY LOSSES.

The preliminary skirmishing is taxing the Montenegrins heavily. Already 370 wounded men have been removed to the hospital at Podgoritz, and more are constantly arriving.

GERMANY'S OFFER.

The German Ambassador has offered part of the German Embassy for a hospital in the event of war.

A DESPERATE ENGAGEMENT.

Reuter's Podgoritz correspondent in a despatch states that General Nikovitch occupied a hill near Gushinje yesterday.

The Turks resisted desperately. There were heavy losses. Afterwards the Montenegrins captured two positions commanding Gushinje. They have four machine guns, many rifles and a quantity of ammunition.

AUSTRIA-HUNGARY'S POLICY.

Reuter's Vienna correspondent telegraphs that it is announced that no military action by the Confederacy in San Yak and Novibazar will induce Austria-Hungary to interfere until the termination of hostilities. The Monarchy will then act as is necessary for the protection of its interests in the Balkans.

TURKEY AND THE REFORMS.

Reuter's Constantinople correspondent further telegraphs that Turkey in her reply to the Embassies states that in her efforts to carry out reforms she has so far been impeded by all kinds of obstacles and outrages. Nevertheless the Government have persevered and have decided to apply the Vilayets Law directly sanctioned by the Chamber and the Sultan, but Turkey was not yet able to admit the hearing of Article 23 of the Berlin Treaty as to the present situation.

BY TELEGRAPH.

THE CRETAN UNREST.

Reuter learns this evening that the Consuls have gone to Samos to report upon the condition of the island.

GREECE AND THE CRETANS.

A telegram from Reuter's Athens correspondent states that the Cretans received a vociferous welcome from the Chamber. The Premier declared that the Government accepted the vote of the Cretan Assembly in favour of union with Greece, and henceforth there would be only one Chamber for Greece and Crete. Greece was ready to face all dangers and was confident of victory.

STOCK EXCHANGE.

The Stock Exchange has a more dignified tone, but there is still acute uneasiness. Consol touched 72½. A re-assuring factor, however, is that Continental Bourses have regained some equilibrium.

CRETANS DEFEY THE POWERS.

The Cretan deputies, profiting by the war situation, are defying the Powers and have entered the Greek Chamber.

TURKS SURPRISE SERVANS.

The Turks surprised the Servians around Ristovatz. The Servians rallied hastily and succeeded in repelling the enemy. Fighting continues over ten miles of the frontier.

GREECE DEMANDS HER SHIPS.

Reuter's Athens correspondent states that the Government has instructed the Grecian Minister at Constantinople to demand the release of the Greek ships and an indemnity to the owners within twenty-four hours.

MONTENEGRO'S CASUALTIES.

So far the Montenegrin casualties are 256 killed and 500 wounded.

TURKEY'S REPLY TO THE POWERS.

LATER.

Reuter's Constantinople correspondent telegraphs that the reply of the Porte to the Embassies was handed to the Austrian Ambassador this morning. While thanking him for the friendly interest he had taken in the situation in the interests of peace the Note states that the Porte is determined to carry out the reforms but cannot tolerate any foreign interference.

TURKS ATTACK THE SERVANS.

A telegram from Belgrade states that it is officially announced that the Turks crossed the frontier near Ristovatz at 5 o'clock this morning and attacked the Servians.

THE BALKAN STATES'
DEMANDS.

LATER.

The Notes from the Balkan States to Turkey demand autonomy for Macedonia on the Belgian or Swiss Governor General principle, with elective Provincial Councils, the creation of gendarmerie, militia and free education.

THE CONFEDERATE STATES AND THE POWERS.

The Notes presented to the Austro-Hungarian, the Russian and the Turkish representatives at Athens and Sofia are identical with those sent to Belgrade.

The Notes to Turkey specify the reforms demanded, and in great detail remind Turkey of her undertaking to introduce these reforms within six months.

The Note to the Powers thanks the latter for their interest, but after recalling the numerous promises of Turkey recorded in international documents says that the "Allied States are anxious to obtain more definite results than hitherto, and have decided to address Turkey direct."

ATTEMPT ON MR ROOSE-VELT'S LIFE.

(Reuter's Service to the China Mail.)

LONDON, Oct. 15.
Reuter's Milwaukee correspondent telegraphs that Mr Roosevelt, while proceeding to address a meeting, was shot at.

Great difficulty was experienced in restraining the crowd from lynching the assailant, whom the police seized. Mr Roosevelt asked that the man should be brought before him, and then inquired why he had fired.

The man did not reply.
Mr. Roosevelt addressed the meeting.

LATEST FROM THE BALKANS.

(Reuter's Service to the China Mail.)

LONDON, Oct. 15.
Tuzi has been surrendered to the Montenegrins, who captured many guns, 7000 rifles and six Turkish regular battalions.

THE ATTEMPT ON MR
ROOSEVELT'S LIFE.

(Reuter's Service to the China Mail.)

LONDON, Oct. 15.
A telegram from Milwaukee states that a Socialist fired at Mr Roosevelt in the street near his hotel. Mr Roosevelt was unhurt.

A VICTORY FOR THE MONTENEGRINS.TURKISH OFFICER RAISES THE "WHITE FLAG."

(Reuter's Service to the China Mail.)

LONDON, Oct. 15.
A telegram from Podgoritz states that while the Montenegrins at noon were preparing to storm the town, a Turkish officer with a white flag appeared and unconditionally surrendered. "Then" (the telegram continues) "a deputation of burghers from Tuzi came to Danilo, begging mercy and pardon."

The Montenegrins made a triumphal entry in the afternoon and were welcomed with jubilation by the Christian Malisoor inhabitants. The booty included many horses, 800 tents, and 10 days' food supplies.

CANTON POLICE INSPECTOR STABBED.

We learn from Canton that about 5 p.m. on Sunday, Yau Ting, an Inspector of No. 1 Police Station at Canton, was on duty at Ki Ming Yang, when he was assailed and stabbed with a knife.

The wounded Inspector was taken by the station and was attended by a Doctor of the Red Cross Society. The Inspector got two cuts in the head of a not very serious nature. This incident probably gave rise to the rumour that the Commissioner of Police at Canton had been injured.

STREET THIEVING.

Before Mr C. D. Melbourne at the Police Court to-day a man, who said he had only been in the Colony a month, was charged with snatching a gold bangle from a child walking with her mother in Queen's Road. The magistrate, remarking that this was a very serious offence, sentenced the accused to six weeks' hard labour, four hours' stocks in lieu of one day, and twelve strokes of the birch.

ALLEGED OBSTRUCTION.

Mr Kemp, Crown Solicitor, prosecuted the proprietor of 222 Queen's Road at the Magistrate's Court this afternoon, before Mr Melbourne, for causing an obstruction in Fat Fu Lane by making enclosures without permission from the Government. Mr Davidson, of Messrs Hastings and Hastings defended, and argued for the defendant that the land was his and he could do as he wished with it so long as he left a gateway to the houses. The case was proceeding when we went to press.

There is a dispute between the coffee makers of Canton and the Canton Chief of Police, and as a consequence the coffee makers have "struck" and have refused to make coffee. Dead people are being buried in improvised box-coffins, and in some cases, poor people have had to dispense with boxes and bury their dead in waiting shrouds.
